Sharing information with other organisations

We will not sell your personal information to other organizations.

We will generally only give another organisation access to your personal information when the other organization is providing services to us that help us to operate our business or to provide a service to you.

We require these organisations to agree to our Privacy Statement, meet strict conditions on the use of personal information, and to comply with the National Privacy Principles in the use, storage and disclosure of your personal information.

Such organisations are those that assist us:

- To provide, manage or administer the products and services that we offer. This includes service providers (such as mail house providers, printers and advertising agencies), postal services, call centres, customer research agencies and our advisers;
- To maintain, review, and develop our business systems, procedures and infrastructure, including testing or upgrading our computer software;
- With reviews of our business operations and structure;
- To collect outstanding debts; and
- With developing and planning new products and services.
